ST. SULPICE HAS CRACK COLORED BASEBALL NINE

Team Composed of Former Professionals Wins Base Title

Playing "African golf" and "wrestling" with heavy bats and boxes is not the only form of recreation afforded four companies of the 312th Labor Battalion, on duty at St. Sulpice with the Depot Quartermaster. Between paydays, when for obvious reasons "golf" games are but sad or happy memories, as the case may be, these colored soldiers of Uncle Sam play baseball.

Since last January, when the 312 Labor Battalion nine was organized, it has earned the title of the "Clean-up Squad," with particular reference to the manner in which it has whittled the fat out of diamond honors.

Its list of scalps would provide dresses for an entire tribe of Hula-Hula dancers and make a Bluebeard gasp with envy. The list includes victories over such good teams as the 9th Labor Company, Depot Labor Company, 15th Engineers, 33rd Labor Battalion, 34th Labor Battalion, 35th Labor Battalion, Ponton Forestry nine, 32nd Engineers and Ordnance Department of St. Sulpice.

Colored Champions of Base

The base athletic officer awarded this team the colored championship of Base Section No. 2 after the defeat of the Ponton nine. There is no league for colored players at the base so the team has to play independent ball.

The 312th is managed and coached by 1st Sgt. Otey Scruggs, who has played professional ball for 14 years. He is a pitcher and outfielder hailing from Vallejo, Cal., and has played with the Piedmont Athletic Club, of Roanoke, Va., with the 24th U.S. Infantry in the Manila League, with the Oakland Club and with the Vallejo Valley Association.

Pvt. Lawrence Davis plays third. He was formerly with the Indianapolis Technical Institute and with the Eastern Black Sox of the same town. Pvt. Luther Jordan, left fielder, hails from Kansas City, Mo., and has played with Chase High School there, with Carlton and Mitchell Sluggers, of Salina, Kan.

Second base is held down by Pvt. John Watkins, Jr., who has played ball around Sumter, S. C. Another Missourian on the team is Cpl. Sylvester J. Froels, catcher, who learned the fine points of the catcher's art while at the Bartlett High School, Elmer, Mo. The shortstop, Pvt. Aphis L. Davis, held down the same job for seven years with Waco in the Texas Colored League.

Fine Pitching Staff

Pvt. Harold Morris is a pitcher. Like Jordan, he served his apprenticeship with the Carlton and Mitchell Sluggers, of Salina, Kan. Cpl. Edward Glover, outfielder, has played with the Lelan (colored) League of Rosedale, Miss., and with the Colored Giants of Tallahassee, Miss. Pvt. Babe Busham, first baseman, comes from Nashville, Tenn., where he played with Nashville in the Tennessee League, and with Park University.

Another pitcher is Pvt. Hubert Houston, who played with the White Sox, one of the classiest colored teams in the South. Pvt. Calvin Bynum, from Fort Sam Houston, is the club's other backstop. His record compares favorably with the Atlanta League of Georgia, the Madison White Sox, of Madison, Ga., and the Monroe League. Pvt. Early Gurley, pitcher, claims Atlanta, Ga., as his home town. He pitched on the outfield for Chattanooga High School and the Chattanooga All-Stars, of Chattanooga, Tenn.

The 312th believes in having plenty of players, and so it has a fifth, in the person of Pvt. Charlie Anderson, of Louisville, Ky. His teammates how low before him as the best pitcher they've got. He acquired his reputation as a star pitcher in some of the fastest colored teams of Kentucky, Texas, Georgia and Illinois.

POWERS CAPTURES MULE RACE AT 9TH INFANTRY FIELD DAY

Company A won the athletic field day of the 9th Infantry held at Denver, Colorado, in addition to capturing the Heavy Marching Order Relay, representatives of the company romped home winners in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

Powers, of Company F, managing his mount in a manner that would have reflected great credit upon a professional jockey, breezed across the wire ahead of a good field in the Mule Race.
